

Brooklands Radio SANDOWN SPORTS February 2018

With the Winter Olympics inspiring people across Surrey, Brooklands Radio has teamed up with Sandown Sports in Esher to give two listeners the chance to try their hand at kickstarting their skiing career.

Each winner will receive a one-hour lesson for two people, with an experienced coach. You will get to ski on some of the facility's four artificial ski slopes, which overlook Sandown Park racecourse and the London skyline.

Just answer this Winter Olympics question:

Which Olympian won the women's skeleton gold in Pyeong Chang this year, becoming the first British Winter Olympian to retain their champion title?

Is it A: Lizzy Yarnold, B: Jayne Torvill or C: Elise Christie?

email your answer to studio@brooklandsradio.co.uk along with your name and telephone number.

Entries close at midnight on the 1st March with the winners being announced by James Pearce on Saturday 3rd March at 4:10pm.

Good luck!